

2011

UT Beef and Forage Field Day

Thursday, June 9, 2011 7:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

A free public event at the

East Tennessee

AgResearch and Education Center – Blount Unit

4341 UT Farm Road, Louisville, Tennessee

An interactive youth program will also be presented

7:00 a.m.

Registration/Trade Show Visitation (Arrive early for coffee and biscuits.)

8:00 a.m.

Program:

- Cattle Handling Demonstration (Todd McCartney, McCartney Ranch Company, Throckmorton, TX)
- Herd Health Practices to Consider
- Use of Byproduct Feeds in Beef Operations
- Cattle Shrink during Hauling and Marketing
- Management Practices to Decrease Stress at Weaning
- Is Hobby Farming Really a Hobby?
- Considerations for Selling Timber
- Information on UT Angus Herd

Keynote Presentations: “Preserving Your Farm Lifestyle” and “Good Stewardship is Good Business”

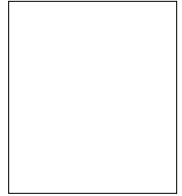

Lunch (provided)

Preregister by June 3* with your county Extension office or call the East Tennessee AgResearch and Education Center at 865-974-7201 to be assured of a sponsored meal.

Located at 4341 UT Farm Road, Louisville, TN, at the intersection of Highway 129 (Alcoa Highway) and Singleton Station Road.

For more information, visit <http://east.tennessee.edu>. Please call 865-974-7201 to request an accommodation for accessibility.

4341 UT Farm Road
Louisville, TN 37777

THE UNIVERSITY of TENNESSEE UT
INSTITUTE of AGRICULTURE

E11-6515-006-012-11 3M 05/11 11-0173